AFTERMATH 73

J. Hoddin

Time it was,
And what a time it was,
It was . . .
A time of innocence,
A time of confidences.
Long ago . . . it must be . . .
I have a photograph.
Preserve your memories;
They're all that's left you.
Paul Simon

MY WORLD

I have a crystal ship. I will sail it down a good river, the river of peace and love. I preach and pray for love and peace, but I am not like you. I preach good, and you my friends, preach bad.

You say you don't like me because I use drugs. Yes you're right. I do use drugs because without them I will live in your world of war and hate. No thanks.

I like my world as it is. You're right again, my world isn't real, but someday it will be. Someday my crystal ship will come alive and my river will flow, but for now I just pray.

With your world alive my ship is sunk and my river is dry, so come with me my friends, sail in my crystal ship and swim in my river, but if not then live in your world and call me a fool.

But listen my friend. When you live here my river will flow, your world will die fast, but not mine. Once my ship sets sail, it will never die . . .

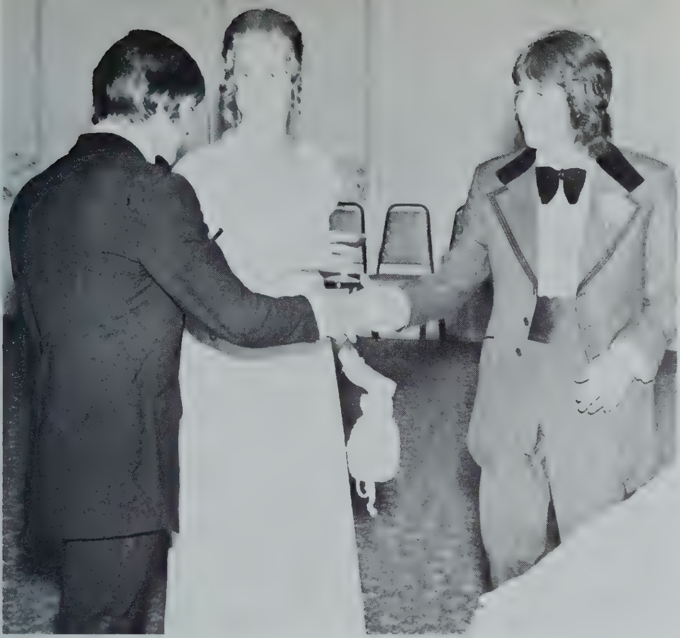
Colour My World

"Colour My World"

As time goes on
I realize
Just what you mean
to me
And now,
Now that you're near
Promise your love
That I've waited to share
And dream
Of our moments together
Colour my world
With hope
Of loving you



Our lovely queen,
Debbie Blondin, was surrounded by her
radiant court:

Suzanne Brady

Martha Donovan
